Re: Land Preservation Committee (LPC) Update

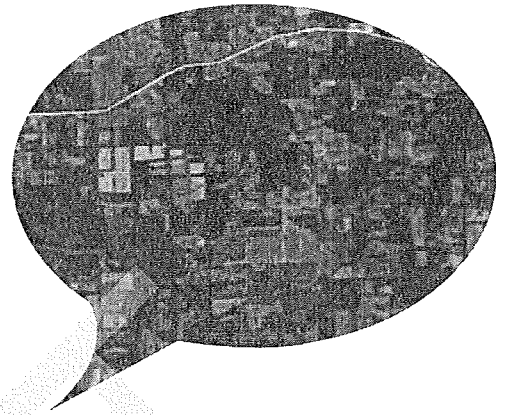

The next Land Preservation Committee (LPC) meeting is Thursday, January 11, 2018.

The LPC is working on having “a conversation on land preservation” at our February 8th meeting. The purpose is to have our residents and local experts join together to have “conversations” on the benefits of land preservation. We are working on a poster to advertise the meeting. Also, like us on Facebook at Northfield Township Land Preservation Committee.

In addition, Ms. Otto and I are in the process of reviewing changes to the bylaws.
